

An Act limiting the times of Servants

Be it enacted by the Lord Proprietary of this Province of and with the advice and approbation of the freemen of the same that all persons being Christians slaves except of the age of eighteen years entire and brought into this Province at the charge and adventure of some other person shall serve such person at whose charge they were so transported for the full term of four years only to commence from his or her arrival in the Province except any other time herein contracted for by Covenant.

And the charge shall be accounted and adjudged that persons by whom or whose order the passage money was paid to the merchant or master

And all persons under the age of eighteen years transported into this Province at the charge and adventure of some other Province shall serve such Person at whose charge he or they were so transported until such person or persons so transported shall be of the full age of twenty four years except likewise any other time herein contracted for by Covenant.

And every maid servant being Christian except before excepted of the age of twelve years old or under shall be bound to serve the party or parties transporting her or them for seven years and if she above the age of twelve years she shall serve for four years only (except it were otherwise conditioned) and at the end of any the said terms of service expired the master or mistress of such servant at the time